Approved test of speaking and listening for UK visas and immigration

IELTS Life Skills is an English test for people who need to prove their speaking and listening skills at Levels A1 or B1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

The test is included on the UK Home Office's list of Secure English Language Tests (often referred to as SELT tests) and is available both in the UK and internationally.

IELTS Life Skills is offered by the three IELTS Test Partners – British Council, IDP: IELTS Australia and Cambridge Assessment English.

Who is the test for?

IELTS Life Skills is specifically designed for people who are required by UK Visas and Immigration (UKVI) to prove their speaking and listening ability as part of an application.

It can be used by people applying for:

- 'Family of a settled person' visas
If you want to remain with a relative, spouse or partner already living in the UK permanently.
- Indefinite leave to remain
If you are already living in the UK and want to make it your permanent home.
- Citizenship
If you want to become a British citizen.

For all other visa categories the IELTS test can be used. To find out more about how you can use IELTS or IELTS Life Skills for UK visas and immigration, go to www.ielts.org/unitedkingdom

Test levels

IELTS Life Skills is available at two levels:

- A1 Speaking and Listening – for 'family of a settled person' visas
- B1 Speaking and Listening – for indefinite leave to remain and citizenship.

Test format

IELTS Life Skills is a face-to-face Speaking and Listening test. You will take your test with an examiner, and with one other candidate.

Check if you need an English test

Test focus

The tasks are designed to reflect everyday communication in an English-speaking country. You will take part in short discussions on everyday subjects including:

- personal details/experiences
- family and friends
- buying goods
- work
- health
- leisure
- education/training
- transport
- housing
- weather.

At each level, the test is designed to assess whether you can listen and respond, make your meaning clear and speak with other people.
